

LET'S PRACTICE

Read the Latin sentences and translate. Circle the use of the infinitive in the sentences.

1. Pater meus iubet poētās trīstēs epistulās dē morte soci scribere.

It means _____

Circle: subjective | complementary | objective | indirect statement

2. Dum temptātis verba memoriā tenēre, equōs vestrōs ante portam vidētis.

It means _____

Circle: subjective | complementary | objective | indirect statement

3. Sciō liberōs pulchra avium in arbore carmina audire.

It means _____

Circle: subjective | complementary | objective | indirect statement

4. Sedere in hortō cum multis flōribus est vītam bonam laetamque scire.

It means _____

Circle: subjective | complementary | objective | indirect statement

5. Interim prohibēs gentēs lapidēs in fenestram iacere.

It means _____

Circle: subjective | complementary | objective | indirect statement

6. Lēgātus scribit multōs medicōs in urbe novā fēliciter nōn habitāre.

It means _____

Circle: subjective | complementary | objective | indirect statement

7. Cupimus saepe per silvam cum parvis frātribus nostris multā nocte ambulāre.

It means _____

Circle: subjective | complementary | objective | indirect statement

Flashcards